DESCRIPTION

The Princess F65 is an example of a family yacht where every square centimetre has been thought through and intelligently used. Eight people can travel in comfort aboard the F65, and the future owner is offered a choice between two flybridge and lower deck layouts. Whichever option you choose – with a double or single crew cabin and an additional sunpad or another dining area on the flybridge – you can be sure that every guest will find a spot to their liking at any time of day on board. Small but important details, such as the option to install a drinks fridge on the foredeck, add even more winning points to the Princess F65. This is the only model in the range whose flybridge is equipped with a sun awning.
