DESCRIPTION

When developing the Princess V65, special attention was paid to the cockpit layout and open galley. As a result, the areas where guests spend most of their time are spacious and equipped with everything necessary. The Princess V65 has a spacious sun pad on the foredeck. The saloon can be combined with the cockpit by opening its windows and sliding back the hardtop, or conversely, it can be isolated and turned into an air-conditioned space if the weather requires. On the lower deck of the Princess V65 you will find four cabins, three heads and a crew cabin.
